Reflection for the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time: Year C

Avoiding Immorality

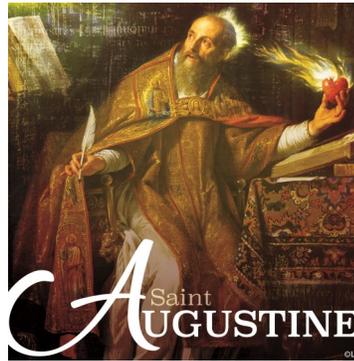

Rev. Victor C. Yakubu, Parochial Administrator

The life of St. Augustine of Hippo is filled with testimonies of his immoral living before he found Christ. As a young man wandering all over North Africa and around the Mediterranean Coastlands, he sought to find true happiness. He tested all avenues of finding happiness as a young man but found no true joy. In whatever he indulged in, he progressed to the next to suit his personal voids. During his wanderings, he travelled to Milan in Italy and entered a church where he heard the word of God that touched him for the first time in his life. He listened to Bishop Ambrose of Milan preach about Jesus and this attracted him greatly. St. Augustine changed his life and was baptized. He not only became a Christian, but he was ordained later as a priest and Bishop of Hippo.

Personal change comes with personal efforts to fill a void within the self. Every person has personal traumas trying to test our alit to survive dangerous times. To resolve problems about our social, cultural, economic, or spiritual life, we need experienced minds to help us navigate to success. While trying to find answers to life's problems, we run into catastrophic moments filled depressions. Without fulfilling the needs, we set for ourselves, depression takes over as a means of escape. St. Paul says to people in this condition, "The body is not for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body." In his teaching, St. Paul emphasized the use of the body to glorify God and not allow it to be dominated by sin. Like St. Augustine, St. Paul became a reformed person after encountering Christ. Both changed their ways of living and began to live according to the light of Christ.

The call of Samuel is another typical example of change. He transformed into a new way by the mentorship of Eli. The Chief Priest Eli saw Samuel as an inexperienced youth in the ways of the Lord. He knew that his presence would inspire the young man. He advised Samuel accordingly so that he could live a life devoid of immorality. In the process of seeking the Lord, he got a surprise. The reading says, "At the time Samuel was not familiar with the Lord, because the Lord had not revealed anything to him as yet." It shows that Samuel was a neophyte in things related to the temple and living a worthy life.

At the end, Eli knew that God had answered his prayers for Samuel. He advised him to reply, "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening." This is the kind of mentoring we need in the spiritual realm just like in all endeavors of human life. Unfortunately, many people disregard mentoring in the spiritual realm because people generally do not want an intrusion into their personal lives where sin reigns.

Samuel gained the blessing of Eli and the Lord blessed him for his future endeavors. Every Christian should emulate Eli because holiness can come to us only when we understand the value of our true selves. The purpose of our existence is the indulgence of self into gainful projects that benefit the self and others.

Jesus' coming into the world is purposely to assist every individual to make the decision to know God at a personal level and not the at the family or community levels. At the personal level, we learn to be true to ourselves, and we invest our time in the service of God knowing that others are equal with us before God. In this regard, Jesus taught his disciples to love one another as he loved them. St. John the beloved apostle continued to preach this love even into his old age when he lived on the Patmos Island. John the Baptist recognized Jesus as the true Lamb of God and introduced him as "the Lamb of God." Two of John's disciples left him and followed Jesus because they found the man whose teaching brings transformation at the personal level. We now know that Andrew and his brother Simon Peter were disciples of John the Baptist. But they transferred their allegiance to Jesus because they found the man who will lead them to their inner selves. Both Andrew and Simon Peter became great apostles of Jesus in expanding the teachings of Jesus after his death. Andrew invited Simon Peter when he said, "We have found the Messiah" and brought him to Jesus. We know that Jesus loved Simon and renamed him Cephas — which means Peter or the Rock. And Peter, the Rock, rose to become the head of the apostles (and in the Catholic Church, the first Pope).

The message to all Christians on this day is about believing in yourself during personal confusion. As youngsters, we dream about stardom and fame, and we rush into mistakes of all kinds. As older people, we regret our actions in the past and wished we could have done better. However, the difference between youngsters and older people is the under- utilization of resources around for personal growth. Anybody who begins a sentence with "I know what am doing" does not regard a second opinion. But listening to experienced people gives a second opinion resorts our hope of a better tomorrow. Overall, every Christian has a former life, and it is not good to open the Pandora's Box. The life we lived in sin is filled with mistakes like of Samuel, Augustine, or Paul. It is time to embrace a personal change that brings transformation into the future. This can only be real when we allow Jesus to steer the boat and whether all the storms of our lives either known or unknown to us. To enjoy your tomorrow, you must begin to sow seeds of true happiness today. Are you living an immoral life? Tell your story. Keep praying!

Eucharistic Adoration & Exposition Explained

Question	Adoration	Exposition
What is it?	Adoration is any time spent in prayer before Jesus Christ truly present in the Eucharist. The Blessed Sacrament needs not be exposed to view.	Exposition is the ritual, liturgical act of public worship during which Jesus, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, is displayed for viewing and veneration in a monstrance or ciborium. It further extends the worship given to God at Mass.
What is it for?	Private Devotion, strengthening one's personal connection to Jesus in the Eucharist.	Public Worship, extending the worship given to God in the Mass throughout the day.
Who is it for?	Adoration is for any of the faithful who desire to honor the real presence of the Lord in the Eucharist by spending time in private devotion where the Blessed Sacrament is reposed. This time can be spent alone or with others and is typically a very fruitful spiritual practice.	Exposition is for the whole Christian community and the world. It publicly declares our belief in the presence of God in the Eucharist. It should thus happen when a number of the faithful are able to gather and is to be led by a member of the clergy, or in their absence a delegated lay person.
When does it happen?	Anytime a member of the faithful visits a place of repose for the Blessed Sacrament.	Exposition occurs at fixed hours when two or more members of the faithful will be present. In chapels with extended exposition Jesus should only be exposed and reposed a maximum of 2 times daily; typically once before and once after the Mass.

In No Greater Love, You Will Experience the Unconditional Love Christ Has for You

We often hear about Jesus' passion and death, but imagine experiencing them for the very first time. In No Greater Love: A Biblical Walk through Christ's Passion, we are going to walk step-by-step with Jesus on his journey from his agony in the garden to his crucifixion on Calvary.

Along the way, we will unpack the biblical background to these events, the prophecies, and most especially, the ways Jesus is inviting us to walk more closely with him today.

No Greater Love is a five-part Bible study program that begins Tuesday, February 1, 2022 at 10:00am. For more information or to register, visit ascensionpress.com or contact Grace McNair (928) 279-2051.

Covid numbers are still high in our area so please continue to use hand sanitizers, continue to keep safe distance as much as possible, and consider wearing a face covering. We are sanitizing the Church, Chapel and Parish Center regularly.

There is a "lost and found" in the vesting room (next to the gift shop). If you think you've lost something in Church, please check there. If you don't find what you're looking for there please check with the Office.

With the colder weather we are working mostly indoors for a while with projects requiring some general construction or repair knowledge. If you have skills in carpentry, drywalling, painting, plumbing, etc. or if you'd like to add your assistance in any way, please call the office at 928-377-3435 extension 4, or call 402-415-1296, or email at scouch@stmarykingman.com. There's always something that can use an extra pair of hands and ideas. As always, if you see something that needs attention or if you need assistance with anything let us know. Food For Thought: It's cold outside but our hearts can stay warm with Jesus! Keep Smiling and Praying! Peace And May God Bless Us All!
