1ST SUNDAY OF LENT

Then the devil took Jesus up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me." - Mt 4:8-9

Luego lo llevó el diablo a un monte muy alto y desde ahí le hizo ver la grandeza de todos los reinos del mundo y le dijo: "Te daré todo esto, si te postras y me adoras". - Mt 4, 8-9

Reflection for First Sunday of Lent: Year A
First Sunday of Lent
 Fr. Brent Bowen

One of the great Eastern saints of the Church, St. Gregory of Nazianzus, once famously said, “That which is not assumed is not redeemed.” He says this in reference to Jesus, who, when he chose to become incarnate, took to himself every aspect of human nature with the exception of sin. In other words, because Jesus has a human nature in addition to His divine nature, he is like us in every way; he has a human body and soul. He has a will, an intellect, and emotions. And this reality is important, St. Gregory tells us, because if Jesus had not assumed every aspect of human nature (except sin), then those aspects of human nature would not have been redeemed with his passion, death, and resurrection.

I share this, not merely because it is an interesting theological belief that Christians hold about Jesus, but also because it helps to explain our readings for this week. Every first Sunday of Lent, we read an account of Jesus’ temptation in the desert. We may ask ourselves, if Jesus is God and he is without sin, why would he experience temptation? For the same reason that Jesus assumes every aspect of human nature: that he may redeem all of humanity.

Temptation is a part of every human being’s life because, as we heard in the first reading from Genesis, we all suffer from the effects of the sin of our first parents. When we experience temptation, we can be assured that Jesus went before us and experienced the same temptations that we do, yet He was victorious. By allowing himself to experience temptation like the rest of humanity, he is able to redeem it.

That is what St. Paul is talking about in the letter to the Romans that we hear today: “For if, by the transgression of the one [Adam], death came to reign through that one, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of justification come to reign in life through the one Jesus Christ” (Rom 5:17).

Truly we have received this grace through faith in Jesus. Lent is a season when we are invited to put that grace into action by examining our lives, and seeing those areas where we still need Christ. Many times we go about this by choosing a Lenten penance — deliberately depriving ourselves of things in our lives that may prevent us from allowing Jesus in more fully. Yet, so often, we can focus so much on trying to live our Lenten penances perfectly that, when we fail, we can become discouraged.

Here is the good news: Jesus knows us better than we know ourselves. He is not surprised when we fail or fall short. When you inevitably find yourself struggling with your Lenten penance, the most important thing to do in that moment is to run to Jesus. Ask Him for the grace to start again. He who allowed himself even to experience human temptation will provide us with whatever aid we need.

That is one of the special parts of belonging to a Church that observes liturgical seasons. “Living liturgically” means allowing ourselves to enter into the mysteries of salvation history over the course of an entire liturgical year. Lent, in particular, gives us a chance to open ourselves more fully to Jesus so that we can celebrate the upcoming holy days of his passion, death, and resurrection.

Be sure to pick up a special offering box or can at the back of the church. Write that it's for the building fund, your name and phone number on it before you turn it in.

All monies will go toward future building improvement projects in the parish campus.

Brick Garden

We are continuing to take brick orders. This is a wonderful way to pay honor to someone you love or to be remembered as part of St. Mary history for years to come. Bricks are $50 for a 4x8 and $100 for a 8x8. Call the Parish Office for an order form or to place your order.

The brick garden is growing — don't miss the opportunity to be a part of it.

Our Daily Bread

Thank you for your continued support of Our Daily Bread ministry. We have made and distributed 21,657 sandwiches year to date, and 326,930 since inception (September 2013).

WE ARE IN NEED OF MONEY DONATIONS, FOR LICENSE, APRONS, HAIRNETS. You may drop your donation off at the Parish Center.

Due to the increase demand for sandwiches we are need of more volunteers every Monday 9:00AM TO 11:30AM

If you are interested, please come David Hunter at 714-726-6130.

Thank you, once again!

Only after receiving the required documentation, and the parent(s) and godparent(s) have attended the pre-baptism class, can the baptism of your child be scheduled.

If you have any questions regarding the above, please call the Parish Office: (928) 377-343

Discovering the Amazing Riches of the Catholic Faith

What is the Catholic Church all about? What does it mean to be Catholic? What do Catholics actually believe? The Catholic Church is extraordinary. Founded by Christ himself, the Catholic Church is where we encounter God in his Word, his sacraments, and his saints. The Church faithfully proclaims the fullness of faith, leaving no truth out. It proclaims the fullness of life, leaving no person out. It calls all to repent and to believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the source of all life and salvation. Maybe you have been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you are just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith. Wherever you are in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of the Catholic Church. Join us as Marcelinho D'Ambrosio and Andrew Swafford presents and explains essential teachings of the Catholic Faith in a readable, approachable way.

This 10 week lesson we will discover

- * What Catholics truly believe
- * Who Catholics are and how we are called to live
- * The blessings of creation, redemption and newness of life in the Holy Spirit
- * The profound gift of the sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist, the source and summit of our Faith
- * How to imitate Christ through prayer, and through personal conversion, and through love for others
- * And More!

If you are interested in exploring your Faith, contact Grace Mc Nair at grace.mcnair@gmail.com as soon as possible so she can get you to order your books. We will begin this series on Tuesday, February 7 at 10 AM in the Parish Center.

Jesus instructed St. Faustina to spread the message of His endless mercy and forgiveness to those who seek it. Rooted in this message is trust: trust that Jesus loves us, desires to heal our souls, and is with us. This is an especially important message to expectant mothers. May we prayerfully consider how we are called to help mothers who may be struggling in a particular way. As Christ revealed to St. Faustina: "lay your head on my shoulder, rest and regain your strength. I am always with you." (Diary, no. 848)

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

The LORD God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life. (Gn 2:7)

Psalm:

Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned. (Ps 51)

Second Reading:

For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so, through the obedience of the one, the many will be made righteous. (Rom 5:19)

Gospel:

At that time Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights. (Mt 4:1-2)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We worship a God who understands human limitation. A God who has felt the pangs of fasting and the enticements of the tempter. Our God, hungry and tired and weakened, has stared into the face of the devil and said: "I am stronger than you."

Observances for the week of February 26, 2023

- Sunday: 1st Sunday of Lent
Monday: St. Gregory of Narek, Abbot and Doctor of the Church
Friday: St. Katharine Drexel, Virgin
Saturday: St. Casimir
Next Sunday: 2nd Sunday of Lent

Saint of the week

Venerable Brother William Gagnon cared for every victim of war who entered his hospital regardless of military affiliation. A missionary to Vietnam between 1952 and 1972, he is remembered as a true servant leader who loved Jesus and his fellow man.

Prayer

Prayer for Venerable Brother William Gagnon's intercession

Lord, Jesus, your mercy inspired the Venerable William Gagnon, O.H., to live hospitality with the ill, the refugees and the poor. Grant that we may always minister to all suffering people with charity, as did this son of St. John of God. Lord, hear the prayer that we address to you [personal intention] by the intercession of the Venerable William Gagnon, in order that we may be affirmed in our faith and that your glory and the joy of the Church be proclaimed.

Amen.

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Formed and Fallen

There is a version of myself that walks into church on Ash Wednesday and a version of myself that walks into church on Good Friday. Aside from having the same face, these women bear very little resemblance to one another.

Ash Wednesday Me is fired up. She's ready to go. She's got a stomach full of pączki, a forehead full of ashes, an oven full of fasting bread and a whole list of Lenten resolutions. She's got a plan for the next 40 days and she's ready to be transformed.

Good Friday Me is tired. She's lumbering into church dragging six weeks of failure and unfulfilled expectations behind her. Nothing went the way it was supposed to (again). She didn't accomplish what she wanted (again) and she doesn't want to dwell on it (again).

If Satan offered both versions of myself the same deal he offered Christ — submit to me, and you will have the whole world — I have to wonder: which one of these creatures, formed and fallen, would be strong enough to defy him? Would either?

I can't say that the chipper, optimistic woman on Ash Wednesday has more strength than the tired woman on Good Friday. To each of these women Satan offers an easy way out. But to each, too, Christ offers an abundance of grace and the gift of justification.

This Lent, I know that I will be tested. I know that I will fail in many ways. I know that my intentions and my best efforts will not be enough.

But I bring them to the altar anyway, and I leave them there as an offering. And I know that Easter morning will dawn, and the tomb will be empty.

*"The gift is not like the transgression."
— Romans 5:15*

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Can you recommend some good books for Lenten spiritual reading?

Answer:

On more than one occasion, a coach being interviewed about his team--successful or not--will be asked about the next step. The inevitable response includes something about getting back to basics. Reviewing the fundamentals of the sport strengthens performance and builds confidence.

The best Lenten reading takes us back to the fundamentals. If Lent is the time for the Church to be on retreat, then we should focus on the texts that help us deepen our understanding of our faith. Spend time reading one of the Gospels and use a Scripture commentary to learn all you can about the passion of Jesus. Read about the lives of the saints, especially your patron saint and that of your parish. Perhaps there is some local candidate for sainthood, like Father Walter Cizek, SJ, who wrote several faith-inspiring books. Finally, you can use the Catechism of the Catholic Church to learn more about the church's teachings and beliefs. The sections on prayer and the Mass are really great reflections. Focusing on the basics really helps us take another step forward in our faith. We have not only a better understanding of what we believe and practice, but also why we believe. With that belief comes the confidence we need to be better, more faithful witnesses to Christ.

Pro-Life

Pope St. John Paul II in 'Evangelium Vitae' applauds the daily heroism of mothers who selflessly devote themselves to their children. A culture that fails to truly value motherhood naturally becomes hostile to the gift of new life. There is a great need for real, tangible assistance for expectant mothers. In a world that often turns it back on mothers who sacrifice so much of themselves, may we the church members, rise to help mothers in need. Thank you to all who participated in the prolife rosary this weekend. Our prayers for LIFE are so important. Remember that we are looking forward to helping our local Pregnancy Center with a baby shower on February 18th-19th. Diapers size 1 to 5, clothing size 3 months- toddler, receiving blankets and accessories are much appreciated.

Prayer Reflection...

Fatherhood is first a spiritual reality, because fatherhood has its origins in God, as Our Father, sending his only Son for the sake of our salvation. Fathers therefore have a special role in 'reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God'. (Familiaris Consortio 25). To their children they must reflect the love of God the Father himself. They are called to show themselves as tender protector, living out the virtues of humility and courage. Especially in difficult circumstances, a father needs encouragement to faithfully accept the role entrusted to him by God to support the mother of his child.

Through the intercession of St. Joseph, patron of fathers, may they know their irreplaceable role in the lives of their children, and responsibility they share in welcoming God's gift of new life.
