EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

Inclinándose, miró los lienzos puestos en el suelo, pero no entró. En eso llegó también Simón Pedro, que lo venía siguiendo, y entró en el sepulcro. Contempló los lienzos puestos en el suelo y el sudario, que había estado sobre la cabeza de Jesús, puesto no con los lienzos en el suelo, sino doblado en sitio aparte. - Jn 20, 5-7

Reflection for Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord: Year B
Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord – March 31, 2024

Readings: Acts 10:34a, 37–43 • Ps 118:1–2, 16–17, 22–23 • Col 3:1–4 or 1 Cor 5:6b–8 • Jn 20:1–9 bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/033124.cfm

When we read the accounts of the Lord Jesus' appearances in his resurrected Body, we find some curious things. First, people that know him well, those whom he taught and with whom he lived and loved, somehow don't recognize him at first; and second, these people who encounter the Risen Lord Jesus only recognize him at the Lord's initiative.

Let's examine each of these aspects. First, why don't people know who Jesus is? It's true for Mary of Magdala at the tomb. It's true in this Gospel passage from the Evangelist, Saint Luke. One would assume that Cleopas, a disciple of Jesus, who, along with another disciple on the Road to Emmaus, would have been able to recognize Jesus. Yet somehow he doesn't, and neither does his walking companion. Why?

These encounters of the Risen Lord Jesus, present in his glorified body, with those whom he had at least a passing acquaintance with, if not having been known very well, in his earthly body, fail to have his friends and his disciples recognize him. Therefore, a question for us: what is the nature of the Lord Jesus's risen and glorified Body? Let's examine what we know about this risen and glorified Body of the Lord Jesus Christ from Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition, the founts of Divine Revelation.

To start with, Jesus is not a ghost. He's really there — the same Jesus who walked with them, who taught them, who healed them, who ate with them. Note that one of the things the Lord Jesus seems to want to do all the time in these post-resurrection appearances is to eat! Note that in the Gospel of John, chapter 21, the Lord Jesus even says, "Come, have breakfast!" Note that the Lord Jesus urges his disciples to touch him and see that he is real. (Luke 24:37–40). It's the same Jesus who was nailed to the Cross for us and for our salvation. He still bears the marks of his blessed Passion. He asks Thomas the Doubter to put his hand in his side. So, there is continuity with his earthly body.

Yet there is also discontinuity. The Lord Jesus can vanish before the eyes of these disciples in today's Gospel (Luke 24:31) and he can walk through walls and locked doors (John 20:26). The Lord's body is glorified. Saint Thomas Aquinas, the Doctor Communis, tells us in the Summa Theologiae's third part, question 54, that Jesus' body is of the same nature, but of different glory. The Lord's body is still very real, but it is not subject any longer to decay, as it is incorruptible and it is not subject to suffering, as it is impassible.

With that being stated, we know and can state that the Lord's body in his resurrection appearances is a real body, now glorified. There is a real continuity with his earthly body and also a discontinuity, since it is glorified. And the good news is that, if we live our lives in accordance with his teachings, when all is completed at the end of the ages, when Christ comes to judge, if we are just, these mortal bodies of ours will be raised and glorified like Christ's. Saint Paul the Apostle assures of this fact time and again in many passages (see 2 Cor 5:4–5 and Romans 8:18–19, just to name a few).

Now, onto our second point: yes, there is continuity and discontinuity between the glorified body of the Lord Jesus and his earthly body. His disciples, his apostles, those whom knew him well, at first do not recognize him; they seem to recognize him through faith, and indeed they are called to faith, but, it seems, always at the initiative of the Risen Lord Jesus.

In this relationship we have and that we try to foster with the Lord, it is never us who begin; no, it is always Jesus. Think back to the Magdalene at the tomb on Easter Sunday (John 20). She who is the apostle to the Apostles, a close friend, someone who knew the Lord well, does not at first recognize him. She believes the Risen Lord to be the gardener! And how does she come to know him? The Lord Jesus says her name, "Mary." The Lord Jesus and he alone calls to us and starts the relationship. Like God the Father, when God the Son utters the word, it is created. In this case, the eyes of faith are opened and Mary of Magdala sees him who has been standing right there before her: the Risen Lord Jesus in his glorified body.

Indeed, it is in the encounter with the Lord Jesus, through his word — and we remember that he is the Word through whom all things were made — and through his actions (for instance, the recounting of the Sacred Scripture related to him and the breaking of the bread with the disciples whom he met on the road to Emmaus) that the Lord Jesus is made known.

Isn't that true for us, too? Don't we, like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, come to recognize Jesus, he who has called us by name in baptism, strengthened us in confirmation, and given us our own particular vocation, recognize the Lord Jesus in the readings at Mass? Don't we, like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, know him truly present in the breaking of the Bread that is the Lord's sacramental presence in the Eucharist? And doesn't the Lord Jesus vanish from our midst, like he did to the disciples on the road to Emmaus, igniting our hearts to go forward and tell our brothers and sisters the good news of the Resurrection?

Yes, this story of the Lord's walk on the road to Emmaus poses some tough theological questions, but even more, offers us hope! As the Lord's body is risen and glorified, he hopes to share that with us! What should fill our hearts with more Easter joy than that?

What Would Mary Do?

This Easter morning, I am thinking of Mary Magdalene.

I want to know her state of mind as she approached the tomb in the darkness. Was she afraid? Was she thinking clearly? Was she tired? Had grief and trauma robbed her of her sleep the last two nights? What did she intend to do? Anoint Christ's body, yes — but what else? Kiss his hands, trace the markings where the lash had fallen upon his skin? Say goodbye? Weep? Despair?

What were the words she planned to whisper into the cold, empty darkness that morning, as she wept over God's body?

I don't know anything about her state of mind that Easter morning, except that I know she wanted to be with Christ. Perhaps that was all she knew, too. Perhaps she had no other thought, no other desire, than nearness to him. She didn't need to understand everything, and she didn't expect answers — she didn't dare hope for that.

But everything and everyone had fallen apart around her, and in Jesus' presence she knew her heart would be able to rest.

If you have ever been in the midst of a crisis in your life and found yourself pacing the floors of your house when no one else is awake, muttering the words to a prayer you know by heart, you know what Mary Magdalene felt. In those moments, we do not always feel God's presence. Sometimes, when we look for Him, we only see an empty tomb.

When these dark moments come, I pray you will remember the faithfulness of this great saint. Be like Mary Magdalene. Look for Jesus, always. You may not always find him, but he will always find you.

"She ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, 'They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him.'" — John 20:2

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What is spiritual communion, and do you need to be in a state of grace to receive it?

Answer:

The practice of making a "spiritual communion" dates back several centuries and St. Thomas Aquinas described it as "an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Holy Sacrament and a loving embrace as though we had already received Him."

Traditionally, a prayer of spiritual communion has been used by those who are unable to receive sacramental communion because of health, inability to attend Mass, or who cannot receive communion because of grave sin. This practice has been encouraged by many saints and spiritual writers and most recently Pope Francis encouraged the practice when the realities of the COVID-19 pandemic prevented so many Catholics from taking part in the Mass or receiving sacramental communion.

Although the graces offered in spiritual communion are not the same as those offered in the sacramental communion of the Mass, this practice is still a powerful opportunity to express our desire for union with the Lord and to be united with Christ and the Church, even in an imperfect way.

PSALMS: THE SCHOOL OF PRAYER

The Holy Spirit inspired them, Israel sang them. Christ himself prayed them, as did our Blessed Mother. At the heart of the Bible are the Psalms, prayers from God that help us to pray. In PSALMS: THE SCHOOL OF PRAYER, we discover how these sacred hymns become our heartfelt response to God's loving and wondrous deeds for us.

In this 11 week course we will show you how to establish a deeply personal dialogue with God, through the Psalms. Learn how to meditate fruitfully on the captivating words of the Psalms using lectio divina and study the many ways the Psalms foretell the life and mission of Jesus.

Come join us on Tuesday Mornings, twice a month with video presentations from Jeff Calvin's, Tim Gray, and Sarah Christmyer along with exciting conversations to explore ways into a personal encounter with God.

Classes are only one and half hour long and will begin in October, the first Tuesday, October 3 at 10 A.M. in the Parish Center. Plus, please go to ascensionpress.com to order your workbook (Psalms, the School of Prayer)

If interested, please contact Grace McNair at grace.mcnair@mail.com to sign up.

Prayers for Ernesto Balderrama, Jr

We, the Balderrama family, (Ernesto, Sonia and children), would like to ask for your prayers for our son, Ernesto Balderrama, Jr...aka - Junior, 17 yrs. old. He has grown up in St. Mary. He received all his Sacraments of Initiation here. He was an altar server since 2015. He was a member of the CERS group since 2021 and more recently, was helping his sister, Mariela, with the Wednesday evening Youth Bible study group. He graduated from Lee Williams HS in May 2023 and has decided to dedicate some time to strengthen and learn more about his faith. He left on August 4, 2023, to join Christ of the Desert House of Formation, in Palmdale, CA. He will be on his formation journey for nine months, with other young adults, all of whom have chosen to live by the virtues of obedience, poverty, and chastity.

After the formation period, he will discern if he would like to make his promise to become a Missionary Servant of the Word for one year, serving in whatever mission he is sent to here in the United States. We ask for prayers from our St. Mary community to help Junior stay strong and not feel lonely, as this is the first time he will be away from his family and community for so long. Prayers to help him stay focused during this formation period and guard against all temptation, not only for him, but for all the young people who are on the same journey as him, sacrificing a part of their young lives to follow Jesus. They have chosen to leave the many temptations of the secular world and follow Jesus out into the desert to pray and meditate on what God is calling them to do. Pray and make sacrifices as well for more teenagers and young adults to open their hearts and hear and answer God's calling. We are responsible for faith formation of the youth of our Church. Let us not abandon them in their time of spiritual needs. There is a spiritual warfare going on now and let us not lose our children to it.

Thank you so much and may God bless you all and guard you from all evil.
