Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

As a young, newly ordained priest, I admired a senior priest who was gifted, beloved, and had changed countless lives. But soon I learned that he had fallen in catastrophic and destructive ways. The painful juxtaposition of good and evil was complex to process. How could someone so seemingly good also be so broken and deceptive? It forced me to confront a sobering truth: leadership in the Church is no guarantee against weakness or sin.

Peter teaches that truth in this week's Gospel. When he sees Jesus walking on the sea, Peter does what leaders do. He goes first. "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." But when he sees how strong the wind is, he becomes frightened and, beginning to sink, cries out, "Lord, save me." Immediately, Jesus stretches out his hand and catches him.

St. Thomas Aquinas observes that Peter overcomes the greater danger of the waves but falters before the lesser threat of the wind. This is the paradox leaders often face. It is not always the great trials that undo us, but the smaller, quieter temptations, such as subtle fears and compromises, that lead us to sink.

The good news is that Jesus does not abandon Peter. He saves him before it is too late. Our frail humanity lives within a rhythm of grace, risk, failure, and mercy. Jesus helps Peter overcome both the obvious and hidden sources of fear, and he promises to do the same for us. So, let us pray for all, especially our spiritual leaders.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Then the LORD said to him,
"Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD;
the LORD will be passing by." (1 Kgs 19:11)

Psalm:

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation. (Ps 85)

Second Reading:

I speak the truth in Christ, I do not lie;
my conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me
witness. (Rom 9:1)

Gospel:

Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter,
and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" (Mt 14:31)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

In the midst of life's greatest storms, Jesus comes to us, but we may not recognize him.
We may test him. In doing so, he will test us — and likely, we will fail. But when we falter, his saving hand is there.

Virtues, Explained!

What is serenity? It is an attitude of calm, one that can only be identified when contrasted with turmoil. It is stillness in a storm. It is Christ, walking steadily across the raging waves. It is the feeling we find when we are reconciled to God's mercy.

Prayer in Faith in Trial

Dear God,
In this time of difficulty, be with me.
When I don't feel Your presence or hear Your voice, sustain me.
When I don't see the path ahead,
guide me.
When I don't know the next step,
support me.
In every day and in every moment, be my strength.
Amen.

Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" - Mt 14:28-30

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Elijah finds the Lord not in the wind, earthquake or fire, but in a light, silent sound. When or where do you hear God's voice?

Second Reading:

Paul grieves over the unbelief of his fellow Jews. How can you help family members or friends who do not believe in Jesus?

Gospel:

Peter musters the courage to step out onto the water when Jesus calls him. What are some fears the Lord could help you face?

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Looking for God

What do we think when we see Jesus coming to save us?

The first thing the Apostles scream is “Ghost!” when they catch sight of Jesus walking towards them on water. That always makes me laugh. After all they have witnessed thus far as the companions of the Messiah, they see someone walking on water and they still react like extras in a bad episode of Scooby-Doo.

We are always more quick to believe a bad thing than a good thing. We can easily believe gossip and hearsay about a friend, but we fear being taken for a fool when it comes to faith. We would rather look cynical than stupid.

“Save me, God, for the waters have reached my neck,” reads Psalm 69. “My eyes fail, from looking for my God.”

I think back on my life, on all the various ways that God has rescued me from slipping beneath the surface. Rarely did it ever occur to me, in the midst of it, that I was being rescued. In fact, I usually thought I was being held underwater. Did I hear His voice directing me, or did I only hear my own despairing? “Save me, God.” Was I looking for Him, or were my eyes shut in fear? “My eyes fail, from looking for my God.”

It’s never until after the fact — sometimes years after, or decades — that we see things clearly. That we see Christ in the situation, making his way toward us, hand outstretched.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why do we call Jesus “the light of the world”?

Answer:

In cultures around the world, light and darkness are chief symbols of good and evil, order and chaos, clarity and confusion, hope and despair. These symbols tap into something essential about the nature of things. God has given us the created world as a gift. His first work, as we see in Genesis 1, is to create light, giving meaning and insight to the abyss. It is in the light that the rest of creation comes to be. A gathering darkness emerges in Genesis 3. Adam and Eve hide, shrouding themselves from the sun’s rays and the gaze of God. While God offers a promise of salvation and establishes a covenant with His people, the sense of fog and dim understanding still remains. The Hebrew people repeatedly betray the promises they have made to God, and all around them the nations actively worship idols.

The promise of God is not in vain, however. In John 1, we see a depiction of Christ as primordial goodness, order, clarity, and hope. “The true light, which enlightens everyone was coming into the world ... this life was the light of the human race” (John 1: 9, 4). Think of the last sunrise you witnessed (if you could wake up for it!). As you watched the lavender brighten to rose edged with gold, did your heart swell? Did you recall the goodness of the world? Did you feel rekindled hope? Such is the role of Christ in the soul. Such is his coming Incarnate in our world.

Dear St. Mary's,

I want to thank you for a wonderful first year here in Kingman. We are seeing tremendous growth in our community and that brings with it many new blessings and also some new challenges. Today I want to share with you an overview of our parish financial situation. While not the only indicator of a parish's health, finances do show how I am striving to practice good stewardship of the community's resources and offering them to the Lord for the proclamation of the Gospel, fostering a relationship with Jesus Christ, and community building events to draw members of the Mystical Body of Christ together in common purpose. To that end, I have compiled this report with the help of Alex Lozano our parish bookkeeper and our Renee Periera from our parish finance council so that you can see where our parish stands financially.

Our parish's fiscal year starts July 1st and ends June 30. So, from July 1, 2025 until June 30, 2026 we saw as a community a $61,000 increase in plate income compared to last year meaning that after subtracting expenses (which also went up) our net income was $25,000. This means that our parish income exceeds our expenses and that is due to all of you and your generosity for which I am so grateful for. What these excess funds allow us to do is to put some away into savings but also to maintain our existing facilities including performing deferred maintenance of our facilities. Additionally, we have no debt meaning that our solid financial status and extant savings allow us to look to future endeavors including, but not limited to, expansion and renovations.

Again, thank you all for your prayers, participation, and support of our community and I look forward to walking with you where the Lord guides us. If you have any additional questions please feel free to reach out.

*God bless,
Fr. Chris*

Estimada St. Mary's:

Quiero agradecerles por este maravilloso primer año aquí en Kingman. Estamos viendo un crecimiento tremendo en nuestra comunidad y eso trae consigo muchas nuevas bendiciones, pero también algunos nuevos desafíos. Hoy quiero compartir con ustedes un resumen de la situación financiera de nuestra parroquia. Aunque no es el único indicador de la salud de una parroquia, las finanzas sí muestran cómo me esfuerzo por administrar bien los recursos de la comunidad y ofrecerlos al Señor para la proclamación del Evangelio, el fomento de una relación con Jesucristo y la organización de eventos que fortalezcan la comunidad, con el fin de unir a los miembros del Cuerpo Místico de Cristo en un propósito común. Con ese fin, he elaborado este informe con la ayuda de Alex Lozano, nuestro contador parroquial, y de Renee Periera, de nuestro consejo financiero parroquial, para que puedan ver cuál es la situación financiera de nuestra parroquia.

El año fiscal de nuestra parroquia comienza el 1 de julio y termina el 30 de junio. Así pues, desde el 1 de julio de 2025 hasta el 30 de junio de 2026, como comunidad registramos un aumento de 61 000 dólares en los ingresos por ofrendas en comparación con el año pasado, lo que significa que, tras restar los gastos (que también aumentaron), nuestros ingresos netos fueron de 25 000 dólares. Esto significa que los ingresos de nuestra parroquia superan nuestros gastos, y eso se debe a todos ustedes y a su generosidad, por lo cual estoy muy agradecido. Estos fondos excedentes nos permiten destinar una parte a nuestros ahorros, pero también mantener nuestras instalaciones actuales, incluyendo la realización de trabajos de mantenimiento pospuestos. Además, no tenemos deudas, lo que significa que nuestra sólida situación financiera y los ahorros disponibles nos permiten pensar en proyectos futuros, incluyendo, entre otros, la expansión y las renovaciones.

Una vez más, gracias a todos por sus oraciones, su participación y su apoyo a nuestra comunidad, y espero con ilusión seguir caminando junto a ustedes por donde el Señor nos guíe. Si tienen alguna pregunta adicional, no duden en ponerse en contacto conmigo.

Que Dios te bendiga,
P. Chris

Welcome to St. Mary's!

A SPECIAL NOTE FROM ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

WE NEED YOUR HELP.

During the month of July, we lost several volunteers to illness or moving out of state.

We must gain additional volunteers to fill those positions.

We especially need able-bodied men to drive the box truck to pick up donations of furniture and appliances and make deliveries.

The Thrift Store & Warehouse are open three days a week, but one day or even a few hours a week would be of help if we can count on you.

Please consider joining our team and our mission to help the needy in our community,

Prayer

Lord, help me be humble,
kind, and loving.

Mission for the Week

I will hear and do what God asks in a humble manner.

Sharing the Gospel

Mary was humble. She loved and trusted God. God had been good to Abraham and to the people of Israel. Mary would do as God asked. God, the mighty one, chose her out of many women to be the mother of his only Son. Be like Mary. Do not brag about your goodness. Do not act like you are better than others. Then God will lift you up to a place of high honor with him in heaven.
